You Can Now Request a Copy of your DD-214 Online. The National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) has provided a website for veterans to gain access to their DD-214 online at: <http://vetrecs.archives.gov> or try <http://www.archives.gov/veterans/military-service-records>.

. These records can be used for proving military service or employment purposes. NPRC is working to make it easier for veterans with computers and internet access to obtain copies of documents from their military files. Military veterans and the next of kin of deceased former members may now use the online system to request documents. Other individuals with a need for documents must still complete the standard form 180, which can be downloaded from the online web site. Because the requestor will be asked to supply all information essential for NPRC to process the request, delays that normally occur when NPRC has to ask veterans for additional information will be minimized. The new web-based application was designed to provide better service on those requests by eliminating the records centers mailroom and processing time. (Information reproduced from RAO Misawa Japan Newsletter)

Online ID Card Services Available for Retirees

Retired veterans can now complete tasks online that were normally done in person at an ID card office by using IDCO, or ID Card Office Online. IDCO is a self-service application developed at the Defense Manpower Data Center that allows retirees to perform a myriad of tasks such as updating a family member's contact information and authorizing an ID card replacement. Retired sponsors with a valid Department of Defense self-service logon credential, called a DS Logon, may now perform all family member transactions using IDCO, including electronically signing the DD Form 1172-2, Application for Identification Card/DEERS Enrollment, for their family members online. Once electronically signed, the family member may visit his or her local ID card office and be issued an ID card without the sponsor present. The ID Card Office Online web application is accessible from milConnect at <http://milconnect.dmdc.mil>. Retired veterans may obtain a DS Logon account at an ID card facility the ID card issuing process; online anytime at <https://myaccess.dmdc.osd.mil/>; or by visiting a participating Veterans Affairs regional office.

Medicare Issuing New ID Cards

Medicare ID cards will remove Social Security numbers in 2018. Medicare is preparing to send new cards to patients with Medicare ID numbers next year. The move is required by a law enacted two years ago to discourage identify theft. The 2015 law, the Medicare Access and CHIP Reauthorization act, requires CMS to remove the Social Security numbers from Medicare cards by April 2019. CMS plans a "wide-scale-outreach" to let beneficiaries know they need to bring their new cards when they get care and how to get MBIs if they lose their cards. AARP, March 17, 2017

What to do before a Veteran dies

One of the eventualities in life that spouses and family of veterans face is the death of their loved one who served America in uniform. To help ease the burden on loved ones, retirees and veterans can make preparations in advance.

The first step is to make certain the family has easy access to important documents such as:

1. The veteran's discharge certificate (DD form 214).
2. VA documents, if any, indicating a VA claim number.
3. A copy of all marriage certificates and divorce decrees (if any previous marriages).
4. Insurance policies, including beneficiary designation.
5. A copy of the family will.
6. Location of safety deposit boxes.

Veterans Benefits You May Not Know About:

Long Term Care: Through the Aid and Attendance program, many veterans are eligible to receive money to cover the cost of nursing homes, assisted living programs, and other long term care options.

Caregiver Support: Should you choose to take care of an ailing Veteran at home, the VA offers a caregiver support program. The program does not offer any monetary support, but they offer a free support line and a caregiver support coordinator to help navigate military benefits and the stress of care giving.

Death Benefits: Families may request a U.S. flag to drape over the casket. They may also request a Presidential Memorial Certificate to honor the deceased loved ones. The VA will also provide a free Headstone or grave marker. For more info, go to:

HEALTH AND AGING

No one likes to think about death, but making decisions while you are healthy can help those close to you when the time comes. Having an outline of your wishes may give your caregivers comfort during a difficult time.

There are several ways to make sure others understand the kind of care you want at the end of life:

Talk about end-of-life wishes---

*Discuss your thoughts, values, and desires about end-of-life care with family and friends before becoming sick.

Prepare advance directives---

*Write up formal instructions in documents like a living will and a healthcare power of attorney. Make sure these documents are in a place that is easy to find, and that family members know where they are:

*Tell a trusted family member or friend where you put your important papers. They'll need this information in an emergency:

*Give permission in advance for your doctor or lawyer to talk with your caregiver as needed. There may be questions about your care, a bill, or a health insurance claim. Without your consent your caregiver may not have access to the information they need. You can give your permission in advance to Medicare, a credit card company, your bank, or your doctor. You may need to sign and return a form. Visit the National Institute on Aging website for more information on end-of-life issues at:

Report death to DFAS soon to avoid pay issues

Defense Finance and Accounting Services officials advise reporting a retiree's death as soon as possible by calling 800-321-1080, or completing a Notification of Death Fast Form on the DFAS website.

This will help avoid delay and possible financial hardship to surviving beneficiaries, family members or executors, who will be required to return any unearned military retirement payments.

Eligibility for military retired pay ends with the death of the retiree. If a retired pay payment was issued for the month in which the retiree died, the bank will be notified to return the payment. The beneficiary of the arrears of pay may be due a prorated amount for the month of death.

The caller reporting the death will need the retiree's name, Social Security number and date of death.

How a "Life After Me" Document will leave family and friends with peace of mind.

It may allow you to say goodbye to your family and friends with a heartfelt letter that says the things that may have been too hard to say face to face. It also gives you the opportunity to provide critical information to the executor of your estate and your loved ones to find what they need quickly and easily. Such things as the location of keys to safety deposit boxes, location of documents such as birth certificates, passport, divorce papers, marriage license(s), life insurance policies etc. For more information on how to prepare a "life after me" document, go to:

TRICARE is changing.

Some of the changes affect region consolidation, Tricare plans, enrollment, and costs. There were three Tricare regions in the United States, including Tricare North, South, and West. Now, these regions will become Tricare East and West. They will be administered by Humana Military and Health Net Federal Services. This change will allow for better coordination between military hospitals and clinics and the civilian health care providers in each region.

Several changes will also occur in coverage plans. TRICARE Select, a self-managed, preferred provider network plan, replaces TRICARE Standard and Extra, which is a fee-for-service option in the United States.

Beneficiaries will not be required to have a primary care manager and can visit any TRICARE authorized provider for covered services without a referral. Overseas, TRICARE Overseas Select will provide access to both network and non-network TRICARE authorized providers for medically necessary covered services.

Do I need to enroll?

Yes, but generally, if you are using TRICARE Standard and Extra on December 31 in 2017, you will automatically be enrolled in TRICARE Select on January 1st, 2018.

Federal Long Term Care Insurance Program (FLTCIP)

Long term care insurance is a smart way to protect your income and assets and remain financially independent should you need long term care services at home, in a nursing home, or at another long term care facility. Most health insurance programs, including TRICARE or TRICARE for LIFE, provide little or no coverage for long term care, and long term care insurance can be very expensive. This is why the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) sponsors a long term care insurance for members of the federal family.

OPM has worked closely with the John Hancock Life and Health Insurance company to ensure the coverage and features most valuable to members today and in the future.

The LTC program offers the following features and services:

- You can choose your care setting, whether at home, in an assisted living facility, in a nursing home, or in a variety of other settings. Additionally the FLTCIP covers care provided in the home by friends, family members or other unlicensed caregivers.
- The FLTCIP offers stay-at-home benefits which can pay benefits for numerous options that support care in a home environment such as care planning visits, home modifications, an emergency medical response system, durable medical equipment, caregiver training and home safety checks.
- Once you have coverage, it is portable. You can keep it as long as you continue to pay the required premiums and have not exhausted the maximum lifetime benefit, even if you are no longer a member of an eligible group (for example, if you leave government service).
- Your insurance coverage is guaranteed renewable. It can never be cancelled by the insurance carrier as long as you pay your premiums. It cannot be cancelled due to your health or age.

Your coverage includes a “Waiver of Premium”. Once you have completed your waiting period, the waiver of premium feature allows you to stop paying premiums while you are receiving benefits.

One very popular service requested from the FLTCIP consultants is a personalized rate quote. Using the rate quote, program consultants can demonstrate the wide range of benefits available and the costs associated with each.

Should you have any questions, please call 1-888-889-5680 or email program consultants at:
